Re: Fire Incident at the Plant Site

Dear Sir,

In accordance with the Listing Regulation and Code of Corporate Governance, we would like to convey the following information:

At around 2230 hrs on December 9, 2009, there was an incident of fire at the manufacturing site of Engro Polymer & Chemicals Limited located at Port Qasim. The fire was limited only to a minor section of the VCM plant (VCM scrubbing area). Immediate action was taken and the fire was brought under control and contained from spreading with in a short period of time. At around 0615 hrs on December 10, 2009, the fire was completely extinguished and emergency was declared over at 0700 hrs. Substantial emergency support was promptly provided by Port Qasim Authority, City District Government and the neighboring industries. One of the employees who was injured in the incident is being provided medical treatment at a local hospital. The cause of fire and extent of damage is being assessed at the moment and appropriate communication would be made in due course of time.

Yours Sincerely,

ARSHADUDDIN AHMED
