PUBLIC NOTICE

General Public is hereby notified that our Client National Bank of Pakistan has filed a winding-up petition of Fateh Textile Mills Ltd. (JM No. 04 of 2012) in the H'ble Sindh High Court, on the basis of its inability to pay Rs. 4,910,020,281/- as outstanding loan of National Bank of Pakistan. National Bank of Pakistan has also filed a miscellaneous application for restraining Fateh Textile Mills from disposing off its assets (CMA No. 53/2012). On 27.2.2013, on the said application, the H'ble Sindh High Court has passed the following Order:

"Respondent No. 1 (i.e. Fateh Textile Mills Ltd.) is restrained from transferring, alienating or disposing of the immovable assets of the company.."

In view of above, Fateh Textile Mills Ltd. cannot enter in to any kind of transaction for disposing off any of its immovable properties. All the persons who are intending to purchase any property of Fateh Textile Mills which comes under the ambit of above order of H'ble Sindh High Court would be doing so against the Order of H'ble Court and would face all the legal consequences under the laws of Pakistan.
