

Systems Limited – Achieving Strategic Contracts through its subsidiary TechVista Systems FZ-LLC

Systems Limited, a leading technology provider in the international markets, celebrates its recent successes in the Middle East after signing strategic deals with prestigious organizations like the UAE's Prime Minister's Office, Etisalat, Federal Demographic Council, Emirates National Oil Company in United Arab Emirates, RasGas in Qatar.

TechVista Systems FZ-LLC also set up a subsidiary in Australia earlier this year, which has opened new and exciting opportunities and has already signed up with a large retail chain across Australia - City Convenience Stores.

The accumulated value of these contracts have added another PKR 220 million to the already impressive delivery pipeline in these new markets.

The company is determined to establish long term and mutually beneficial relationships with these prestigious and well-known brands in these new markets. We are thankful to our customers for their trust.

Based on our delivery, we will be able to win customer references leading to a growing business in these new markets. In addition to feeding the established technical workforce of Systems Limited for the offshore services, TechVista Systems FZ-LLC has also expanded its talent footprint by employing highly skilled resources in these markets to diversify its workforce as part of its global growth strategy.

About TechVista Systems FZ-LLC – 100% owned subsidiary of Systems Limited – delivers innovative business solutions in Information Technology and technology-led Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) services. The Systems Limited Group as a leading technology provider, assists its local and international customers maximize their IT investments by creating specialized business solutions that drive business results. We leverage our deep technical skills, accelerators, frameworks, products, best practices, and domain expertise in provision of these solutions to help our customers achieve their business goals by gaining a competitive edge regardless of their local environment.

The winning combination at TechVista Systems composed of talented people, best-in-class technology, innovative business practices and value-added global alliances offers the best resources to corporate and public organizations.